Report On National Webinar

National Webinar on “Collaboration and Self-Reliance during Pandemic – Sharing Experience”

The webinar on “Collaboration and Self-Reliance during Pandemic – Sharing Experience” was organized by the Department of English, Sindhi Degree College on 12/06/2021. Dr. Geetha. R, Professor of English, Bangalore University was the speaker for the event.

About the speaker: The resource person has been teaching English for 26 years for undergraduate, postgraduate and research students and is currently guiding research students on various literary genres. Qualification of Dr. Geetha. R is M.A., M.phil., Ph.D. and CTE. She has presented and published research papers at the National and International levels. Dr. Geetha also has the honour of receiving Karnataka Bhushana Prashasti in 2005.

Inauguration:

The session began with the introductory speech by Dr. Padmavathy K, HOD, Department of English who was also the MC for the event. In the beginning, Dr. Padmavathy. K expressed her gratitude to all the dignitaries and esteemed participants for sharing their valuable time with us for the webinar. She spoke briefly on the grave situation humanity is living under the covid pandemic and how webinars on topics such as “Collaboration and Self-Reliance during Pandemic – Sharing Experience” help people of all ages understand the magic of sharing one’s dark experiences and become more confident and independent.

The event was followed by the welcome address delivered by Ms. Nagarathna K B, Assistant Professor, Department of English.
