HUMAN RIGHTS-EVOLUTION, IMPORTANCE AND RELEVANCE

HELD ON 21MAY 2021

On 21st May 2021, Human Rights cell of the institution organized a National Webinar on the topic "Human Rights- Evolution, Importance and Relevance. Prof. Jaishree. N, of Nagarjuna college of Degree and Management was the resource person.

The webinar was initiated by Prof. Grace, Asst. HOD, of Commerce dept. and the Co-ordinator of the cell by throwing light on the objectives of the cell, which was followed by the welcome address delivered by Dr. Uma Maheswari, faculty of PG department. Dr. Padmavathy, HOD of English department introduced the resource person to the participants.

The speaker began by introducing the topic through various definitions and objectives, sources and types of Human Rights. Madam further elaborated on the evolution of Human Rights and also dealt in detail about the formation of United Nations Human Rights Commission which was basically to draft the declaration.

Further Madam spoke about the main sources of Human Rights in India such as UN Charter, Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948, etc. The speaker also referred to Rene Cassin, who is considered as the father of Universal declaration of Human Rights and who was awarded Nobel Peace Prize for the document.

The speaker further threw light on the importance of Human Rights and the thirty articles that come under Human Rights. The deliberation became more interesting when the speaker began her discussion on the cases pertaining to Human Rights.

Then the session was opened for discussion. The participants came up with queries which were diligently answered by the speaker.

Dr. B.S. Srikanta, Principal of the college further enlightened the participants on the evolution and the significance of Human Rights in India. His talk further stirred the participants thought process on the topic of the webinar.

The session concluded with the formal Vote of thanks proposed by Prof. Asha N, Vice Principal of the college. The technical session was meticulously supported by Prof. Radhika, HOD of Computer science dept. of the college. Two hundred and eighty four participants across the country were present for the webinar.

International Webinar “Trademarks in a Market Influenced by AI

Centre for PG studies, organised workshop on “International Webinar on Trademarks in a Market Influenced by AI” on 5/6/2021 4.00 PM to for teaching and non teaching and company professionals. Miss.Luma Abbas, Practicing Advocate, Karnataka High Court, was the resource person. The Webinar concentrated on the practical implementation of IPR in today’s Pedagogical System. The Webinar included the practical feasibility as well as the difficulties in “Trademarks in Markets influenced by AI” achieving the aim of the webinar. Furthermore, the webinar threw light on the principles and concepts of trademark law to understand whether it includes an AI System or its functions: whether the credibility of a trademark would reduce in the presence of such systems and whether there is a need to amend the existing principles. Nearly 424 participants attended that webinar and have given very good feedback and also suggested that they need more such a programme.

Report on Traffic Awareness Programme

Objective:

- To create awareness on road safety among the students and staff.
- To sensitize the participants of follow traffic rules and regulations.
- To discharge the duties as responsible citizen when they come across accidents on road.

Date of the event: 17/02/21

No of participants: 370

No of volunteers: 82

College NSS Unit organised Road safety Programme in association with Bengaluru Traffic Police as a part of National Road Safety Month. Several videos were displayed for students and staff members to be alert while on road. Principal welcomed the police officers with flower bouquet. During their presentation some statistics scared the audience. Increasing population of the city has resulted in increased vehicular population too. This has led to increased number of accidents.

Due to corona lock down not only the pollution levels have come down number of accidents in the last one year has drastically reduced. The same scenario would continue if the commuters follow traffic rules and adopt road safety measures. Students and staff members were requested to help the needy in the event of road accident, which becomes their duty as a good citizen. Officers also said that the unnecessary legal formalities have been removed to facilitate the helpers. Police helpline numbers to be contacted in case of an emergency was also shared.

With this message a rally was also organised to create awareness among the local residents. All staff members and students joined Principal, vice principal and NSS programme officer.

Outcome of the programme:

- Awareness among the students and the local community people was created with regard to road safety measures.
- Students and participants spread this message to the local residents.
