Dr. Padmavathy K, HOD of English Department anchored the inaugural session. The programme began at 10.00 am with the invocation song rendered by Mr. Bhargav from V semester BA, followed by lighting of the lamp by the dignitaries

Prof. Asha N , Principal of Sindhi College formally welcomed the dignitaries on the dais and greeted one and all who participated in the conference. In her address, she introduced the esteemed personalities on stage and shared her views on how this conference can be a medium for learning as well as exchanging information.

Further, Prof. Sandesh Zephaniah , HOD of Psychology welcomed Shri Madan Daulatram, President, Sindhi College thanked the dignitaries for accepting the invitation and he explained about flexibility of education under NEP.

Dr.B.S Srikanta , Director, Sindhi College, briefed about the importance of NEP. He pointed out that NEP is practical multi-disciplinary education and India has achieved success by channelizing social and economic growth through education. He remarked that Indian Government has taken remarkable step in formulating NEP.

Prof. Vaidyesh, Principal Sindhi Evening College introduced the Chief Guest of the conference Prof . B. Thimme Gowda, Vice-Chairman, Karnataka State Higher Education Council, Government of Karnataka, Bengaluru.

In his address, the Chief guest has given us a bird's-eye view of NEP 2020 including the ways we can bridge the gap between what is existing and what is the need of an hour. He also stressed on the reason behind the implementation of NEP – is to inculcate the creativity, problem solving abilities, higher order thinking skills, communication skills and in – depth learning.

He mentioned that objective of NEP is to develop knowledge, skills, values and dispositions. He pointed out on the syllabus, which has been framed is totally job oriented. He further continued the discussion giving us the reasons behind revamping the existing curriculum. He gave an insightful overview on how teachers should have an objective approach and not a subjective approach. In fact, he is in favour of “Light but Tight Education”. He concluded by reiterating the fact that down the line of 25years, with the joint collaboration of teachers and the taught, education will reach a new zenith.

Prof. Shiny Wesley, Assistant Professor, Department of PG Studies introduced Key Note Speaker, Dr. M.S. Shyam Sunder, Adviser, NAAC, Bengaluru.

Dr. M S Shyam Sunder opened the keynote session by stating the importance of implementing NEP. Impact of NEP will be in the long run were students have choice to select the subjects under open elective. He focused on Empower digital transformation in higher education system.

Dignitaries were honoured by Principal and Director. The conference witnessed a participation of around 220 including academicians, students from various institutions not only in Bangalore but from other parts of the country as well like Maharashtra, Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu etc..

The enthusiasm and eagerness of the participants can be well understood in the immense number of research papers received from all over India.

The programme concluded with the formal vote of thanks proposed by Prof. Prathima.R, Assistant Professor, Department of commerce.

A Brief Bio-data

Dr. R. N. Nagaraj, (b 11th June 1954) obtained his Master's Degree in Sanskrit (1976) and was a Gold Medalist.

He was awarded the Ph.D. (2009) by Bangalore University for his thesis on the Tenets of Ancient Indian Polity as gleaned from the epics Ramayana and Mahabharata, Arthashastra texts- Kautilya's Arthashastra, Kamandaka's Nitisara, Somadeva's Nitivakyamrita and Shukracharya's Shukraniti and the unique story book Pancatantram that teaches statecraft in a novel way to the dull-witted Princes.

He started his Sanskrit studies at the age of 4. He obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Science and later in Laws. He got a diploma and certificate in Management and Computers.

Dr. Nagaraj started his career as a Lecturer in Sanskrit (1976) and taught Sanskrit at the graduate level in several colleges for over three years.

He was a banker for over 15 years with State Bank of Hyderabad and served the Bank in various roles as Manager, Lead Bank Manager and Planning Manager from 1979 to 1995.

He was with Infosys Limited for 19+ years and was a Senior Delivery Manager and the Head of the Finacle Academy and the User Education Team, till his retirement in June, 2014. He was the Honorary Vice-President of Indian Institute of World Culture for eight years from Dec 2007 to Dec 2016 and was its Hon. Secretary for two years from 2016 to 2018. He was on the Board of Studies for Languages of the Bangalore-based Christ University.

Dr. R. N. Nagaraj has versatile experience in teaching International Trade for PG Course in Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan Hyderabad, Software Engineering Course for MBA at Canara Bank Institute of Management in Bangalore University, Advanced Banking for CAIB aspirants for the Hyderabad Chapter of Indian Institute of Bankers and a course on Hinduism at the Indian Institute of World Culture, Bangalore.

An ardent admirer of Indian heritage, he is associated with several organizations for the propagation of Indian culture in general, and Sanskrit, in particular. He was a Member of the Board of Directors of Natya Kala Lakshana Academy. He was a member of the Board of Studies of Sura Saraswati Sabha and was a member of the EC of Vishwa Samskrita Pratishtana. He is the chairman and founder of The Ranga Narayana Iyer Foundation, an NGO devoted to rural empowerment, education and medication assistance.

His official responsibilities have taken him to about 24 countries. He also conducts seminars and workshops for the benefit of engineering and other students on areas of topical interest. He has held seminars and UVCE, MVJ institute of Technology, Acharya Institute of Technology, BMSRIT, MSRIT and others.

A trainer by orientation, he has led more than 150 workshops on personal and professional skills for the corporate employees.

He is also a public speaker in the areas of Sanskrit, Management, Banking, Finance, Hinduism, Buddhism, Indian Heritage, Philosophy and Aesthetics.

He has translated Dandin's Dasha-kumara-charitam from Sanskrit into English. He has also translated Mahamahopadhyaya N. Ranganatha Sharma's Kannada work Shabda-chandrika into English. He authored a biography of Acharya Vedanta Deshikar in Kannada. He delivered 88 discourses on all the 700 Verses of Bhagavadgita in Kannada from 06th June to 14th September this year. They are hosted on YouTube also. He was associated with Sri Vidyaranya Vedike since its inception as its president.

Dr. R. N. Nagaraj has dedicated himself to learning and disseminating the Sanskrit Heritage and knowledge to others.

Workshop on

Enhancing an Important Life Skill- Financial Literacy

Sindhi college, Department of Management organised a one day workshop on Enhancing an Important Life Skill- Financial Literacy on 05/12/2022 for the students of III^r^d Sem BBA & BBA Aviation. The resource person of the day was Mr. Aditya Roy & Mr. Anantha Charya from the INVersity. The lecture focused on the importance of savings and making investment. They also focused on the mistake that individuals can make by using credit cards and how to manage finance. They have provided an insight in to the difference between savings and investments. The Speakers has also thrown light in to the charges on various borrowing, and also credit history. The session was a great success in order to promote financial literacy in the young minds and enabling them to put their skills and knowledge in making themselves self-efficient. The session was also highly beneficial to the audience in spreading awareness about basic financial products such as bank account, usage of credit cards, investment in mutual funds, SIP's ect. The session has educated the users about the functioning of overall financial sectors in taking informed decisions. Over all the students were largely motivated by the information they derived from the session.
