Dear Sir,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to introduce a valuable internship opportunity for your graduating students specializing in Management and Commerce. Our esteemed client, a leading global banking organization based in Bangalore, is actively seeking to hire talented and motivated students for their International Banking Process. This is an incredible chance for your students to launch their careers in the fast-growing BFSI (Banking, Financial Services, and Insurance) sector, with the possibility of securing a permanent position based on their performance.

Internship Opportunity Details:

- Position: Intern – International Banking Process
- Location: Bangalore
- Internship Duration: 1 Year
- Stipend: INR 22,500 per month
- Additional Benefits:
 - Transport facilities to ensure safe and convenient commute for all interns.
 - Variable incentives depending on shift timings and individual performance.

This internship provides your students with hands-on experience in a professional international environment, allowing them to gain exposure to global banking operations. Not only will this experience add significant value to their resumes, but successful completion of the internship may lead to permanent employment within the organization based on their performance during the internship period.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Graduates in Management or Commerce (BBA, B.Com, BBM, etc.).
- No backlogs (students must have successfully cleared all subjects before applying).
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in English.
- The selection process includes written and verbal assessments that will evaluate the students' communication and analytical abilities, set by the hiring organization.

Hiring Timeline:

We are aiming to have the selected students onboarded by the first week of December 2024, and hence we request your collaboration in adhering to the following hiring schedule:

1. Campus Application Deadline:

- We recommend your students submit their applications by October 8, 2024.

2. Assessment Period:

- Written and verbal assessments will be conducted in the third week of October 2024 (around October 16-

20, 2024). This will be done either on campus or through virtual platforms.

3. Interview Process:

- Shortlisted candidates will undergo an interview process starting from October 25, 2024, where the final selection will be made.

4. Offer and Pre-Onboarding Formalities:

- Offer letters will be extended to successful candidates by November 10, 2024, giving them ample time to complete any necessary pre-onboarding formalities, including documentation and medical tests.

5. Onboarding Date:

- Interns will be required to join the organization by the first week of December 2024, allowing them to be fully integrated into the team before the start of the new year.

Benefits for Students:

- This internship is a golden opportunity for your students to gain exposure to the international banking sector.
- They will work alongside experienced professionals, develop critical skills, and immerse themselves in global banking practices.
- Exceptional performers during the internship will have a chance to secure a permanent role within the organization at the conclusion of the internship period.

Next Steps:

We kindly request you to promote this opportunity to your eligible students and support us in organizing a placement drive or virtual recruitment process in mid-October. We are open to discussing further how best to conduct assessments and interviews based on your institution's preferences.

Should you require additional information, feel free to reach out. We are eager to collaborate with your esteemed institution to ensure your students have access to this exceptional career pathway.

Thank you for your time, and we look forward to partnering with you to provide your students with this rewarding opportunity.

Thanks & Regards,

Dear Ms. Nidhi Tatia,

As BBA students have their final subject exam scheduled on 31st July, can the interview process be arranged on 1st August at the same time?

Also, should all students report to your office for this process, or is it done virtually?

Best Regards,

Dear Sir,

Greetings from Lufthansa Technik Services India!

We have an exciting full time employment opportunity for the graduating students at your university.

We are currently hiring for the process called "Customer Service Support – MRO". This is not a typical customer service role as it involves procurement, order management, invoicing, quotation and billing related to MRO's and these employees will be the first point of contact for our customers related to their quotations / billing / invoices and requires to solve their queries time to time. The standard package for freshers we currently offer is 4.09 LPA and we are looking for candidates on high priority.

Our recruitment requirement:

- BBA - Aviation / logistics / supply chain management - 2023/2024 graduates.
- With no active backlogs.
- Excellent communication skills.

PFB the interview rounds,

1. Aptitude Test – will be conducted online for those who clears the telephonic round.
2. Group Discussion – a common topic will be given on the day of interview (this will be a elimination round)
3. Case study – a simple case will be provided and they have to solve it within a given time
4. Managerial Round – a mixture of both technical and personnel interview by respective Manager.

Note: Candidates who clears the Aptitude test will only be called to office for the further rounds and no direct walk-ins are entertained.

Attached is the job description for your reference. We would greatly appreciate it if you could share this opportunity with your students.

While we are thrilled to welcome these talented students to our organization, we have observed that many students could benefit from additional motivation and guidance to better prepare them for their future careers. We believe that with enhanced support from your esteemed institution, students can achieve even greater success.

Here are a few areas where we feel students would benefit from additional focus:

1. Skill Development Workshops:

- o Organizing workshops on soft skills, such as communication, teamwork, and leadership, which are crucial for career growth.
- o Providing training sessions on industry-specific skills that align with current job market trends.

2. Internship and Project Opportunities:

- o Encouraging students to undertake internships and projects to gain practical experience and exposure to real-world challenges.
- o Facilitating connections with industry professionals who can mentor students and provide valuable insights.

We believe that by focusing on these areas, students will be better equipped to navigate their career paths and seize opportunities in their chosen fields.

Thank you once again for your continued support and partnership. We look forward to further strengthening our relationship and contributing to the success of your students.

Warm Regards,

Salman Ahmed
