A REPORT ON THE WORKSHOP HELD IN SINDHI COLLEGE OF COMMERCE ON REVISED SANSKRIT SYLLABUS OF 4TH SEMESTER U.G. COURSES OF BANGALORE UNIVERSITY

The department of Sanskrit, Sindhi College of Commerce with the consent of Bangalore University has organized one-day workshop for the faculty of Sanskrit and students on the changed syllabus of 4th semester Sanskrit on 9.2.2016 in the college premises.

The entire program was held in three phases i.e. inauguration, discussion on the syllabus and valedictory.

The workshop was inaugurated at 9:30 am and Dr.S.R.Leela, Ex.M.L.C., Govt. of Karnataka was the chief guest and the guest of honour was Prof.C.shivaraju, Chairman, PG Dept of Sanskrit, Bangalore University. The program was presided by Prof. Pallavi, Principal, Sindhi College of Commerce. Prof. Pallavi welcomed the guests of the inaugural ceremony.

In the inaugural speech, the chief guest Dr. S.R.Leela spoke about the importance of the dramatist Bhasa in world literature. As a renowned dramatist of social, historical, mythological and fiction plays Bhasa stands ahead of all other playwrights of the world. She even spoke about the importance of studying Bhasa's plays in the present scenario.

Prof. Shivaraju, the guest of honour, spoke about the importance of the workshops like this and thanked the coordinator and the college for organizing the workshop. He also thanked the editors of the textbooks of 4th semester.

In the second stage of the program the editor of the text books Dr. Shivakumar Swamy, Dr.Tripura, Dr. Manjunath Bhat and Dr. Venkateshappa briefed about the text books of Bcom, BBA, BA/Bsc and BCA respectively. The syllabus was discussed and it was decided that for Bcom and BCA the forth Act of the plays Pratijnayaugandharayana and Charudattam will be just described for the sake of descriptive questions and not for translation based questions.

In the third stage of the program the valedictory Dr. M.K.Sridhar, Former Registrar, karnataka Sanskrit University was welcomed as the chief guest and in his speech he spoke about the greatness of the poet Bhasa as a playwright and he thanked the university and the Sanskrit department for prescribing Bhasa;s Plays as the text for UG courses. He emphasized the relevance of Bhasa's plays in the present days and gave the comparative analysis of Bhasa's plays with the other renowned playwrights of the world.

The entire program was conducted by Prof. N.R.Subrahmanya, HOD, Department of Sanskrit, Sindhi College of Commerce and assisted by his colleague Prof...Devaraju & others.

In the end of the workshop, Pro.N.R.Subrahmanya thanked all and the certificates were distributed to the participants.

Dr.S.R.Leela hails from a remote village, Sampangere in Malur Taluk, Kolar Dist. Born into a culturally rich but an economically poor family she diligently pursued her education. Mother Smt.Chudamaniamma stood like a rock in support of her pursuits despite utter poverty in the family. After completing primary education at Chikka Tirupathi, three miles away from Sampangere, she shifted to Bengaluru for her High School Education. She graduated from APS College, Bengaluru studying science subjects, with the help of a small scholar ship, then termed as PCP (Poverty cum progress). Though very fond of physics and Mathematics, she was fascinated by the root language Sanskrit, which she studied as one of the languages till graduation. She did her Post Graduate course, M.A. in Sanskrit and joined the teaching profession by choice. She sat at the feet of many learned scholars to upgrade her knowledge of Sanskrit. FIP of UGC opened new opportunities for higher studies. She obtained her M.phil degree from Madras University and Ph.d from Bengaluru University, working in the college.

As a lecturer in NMKRV College, ample opportunities to grow came her way. New vistas opened up. As NSS officer and as director of RV Institute of Sanskrit studies, she worked with such involvement that she developed deep interest in both the fields. Today as an MLC if she has taken up rural development projects seriously working towards the benefit of villages, her theatre training has culminated in producing Sanskrit films, a rare achievement indeed. While serving in NMKRV College as Prof.&HOD of the Sanskrit Dept., she organized student seminar, national seminars, drama festivals and many other educational programmes.

Her single minded devotion to the propagation of classical arts epitomized in Sanskrit Theatre has culminated in the launching of the cultural organisation called Abhinaya Bhatati@.AB has staged Sanskrit plays in many prestigious forum such as Sangeet Natak Academy, New Delhi; Kalavedi,Bengaluru; Indian Institute of World Culture , Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru; Mount Carmel College, Bengaluru; NMKRV College, Bengaluru:

After G.V.Iyer, if any one has produced films in Sanskrit it is Dr. Leela. She has four films to her credit.

She is a vivacious person of varied interests. Cooking, Gardening, reading, listening to classical music, scripting, writing, acting, direction, social service are some of them which she has been pursuing with passion.

She is an author of about 15 books in three languages, Sanskrit, English and Kannada. With her deep knowledge of Sanskrit language and literature, the basic language of Bharat, she has matured into an able translator. Her book, Glory of Vasistha Ganapathi

Muni, which is an English adaptation of the notable work Vasishta Vaibhavam by Vid.T.V.Kapali Shastri,(published by SAKSHI,Bengaluru) has won accolades from both the learned and the layman alike. She has the honour of contributing one volume to the massive Kathasaritsagara (Sanskrit to Kannada) project, undertaken by the Kuvempu Bhasha Bharati.

She toured Europe extensively during 2006, and presented a paper in the World Sanskrit Conference held at Scotland; Her paper Trans- continental trade in Chanakya's Arthashastra, won critical appreciation by the scholars, present there. In 2007 presented a paper in the University of Bangkok, Thailand on the Buddhist classic, Buddha charitam of Ashvaghosha. From Thailand she went to the celebrated Ankorvat Temple at Cambodia to study the Indian temple art and architecture of the eight century. Based on this visit a video presentation of the biggest temple in the world is prepared and shown to many groups.

She is inspired by the forceful personality and philosophy of Swami Vivekananda. Well read in Ramakrishna and Vivekananda literature, she is invited to deliver talks on Indian literature, Philosophy and tradition. Sister Nivedita is another great personality she admires. Shivaji, Jhansi Rani, Kittur Chennamma, Subhash Chandra Bose, Veer Savarkar and such heroic personalities and patriots are her role models.

After taking voluntary retirement from college in 2005, she joined Mahabharata Pratishtana, as Editorial-coordinator of the Encyclopedia of the Mahabharata, at the request of the Institute. She edited a few books like Hundred stories from Mahabharata, in three languages, Kannada, English and Hindi, during her short stay there for two years, till she was nominated to the upper house of the Karnataka Legislative Assembly in 2008. She also organized two national seminars on Mahabharata, at Delhi and Bengaluru and edited the research journal vyasa smruti.

She is actively involved in many service organizations and Academic Institutions like.

- Rashtriya Sanskruta Samsthan (deemed University). New Delhi.
- Sanskruta Bharati, All India Organization for the spread of Sanskrit.
- Rashtriya Sanskruta Vidyapeetha, Tirupati
- Purnaprajna Vidyapeetha, Bangalore and many others.
