Business Preliminary

Business Preliminary assesses English language ability used in the context of business at Level B1 in the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). It is at Entry Level 3 in the UK National Qualifications Framework.

Results are reported using scores on the Cambridge English Scale and certificates are awarded to candidates who achieve the following grades.

Pass with Distinction – CEFR Level B2 (score 160–170)

Pass with Merit – CEFR Level B1 (score 153–159)

Pass – CEFR Level B1 (score 140–152)

Candidates who have achieved a score between 160 and 170 (Distinction) have demonstrated ability at CEFR Level B2. Candidates who have not achieved a passing grade, but score between 120 and 139, receive a certificate stating they have demonstrated ability at CEFR Level A2.

A † symbol next to the grade indicates that the candidate was exempt from satisfying the full range of assessment objectives in the examination.

The CEFR covers six levels of language proficiency. Research carried out by the Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) shows what learners can typically do at each level. The table below gives examples of typical ability in the work domain in each of the skill areas for CEFR Levels B2, B1 and A2.

Level	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
B2	CAN take and pass on most messages that are likely to require attention during a normal working day.	CAN understand most correspondence, reports and factual product literature he/she is likely to come across. CAN write a simple report of a factual nature and begin to evaluate, advise, etc.
B1	CAN follow a simple presentation/demonstration. CAN deal with predictable requests from a visitor. CAN offer advice to clients within own job area on simple matters. CAN state routine requirements (e.g. asking for typing to be done).	CAN understand the general meaning of non-routine letters within own work area. CAN understand most short reports of a predictable nature. CAN make notes on routine matters, such as taking/placing orders. CAN write straightforward, routine letters of a factual nature.
A2	CAN exchange straightforward opinions on familiar, predictable matters.	CAN understand a short report on a familiar matter, provided that it is clearly expressed in simple language and the contents are predictable. CAN write a short, comprehensible note of request to a colleague or a known contact in another company.

Further information and examples of the ability statements can be found at alte.org.

Python language is one of the most flexible languages and can be used for various purposes. Python has gained huge popularity base of this.

Course Outcomes

This course is a great introduction to both fundamental programming concepts and the Python programming language. By the end, you'll be familiar with Python syntax and you'll be able to put into practice what you'll have learned in a final project you'll develop locally.

Why learn Python?

Python is a general-purpose, versatile and popular programming language. It's great as a first language because it is concise and easy to read, and it is also a good language to have in any programmer's stack as it can be used for everything from web development to software development and scientific applications. It has become mandatory to learn python as the Machine Learning and Artificial Intelligence is quickly emerging as the latest technology.

Pre-requisite:

1. Trainees need to carry their desktop/laptop for practical sessions. Preferably windows operating system to be installed on their desktop/laptop
2. Latest version of Anaconda IDE should be installed on students system.
3. Anaconda IDE can be downloaded from <https://www.anaconda.com/download/> as per your system architecture I,e 32 bit or 64 bit system. You have to download and install windows installer for Python 3.7 version. We will be using Spider tool of the Anaconda for practical sessions.

Basic Terminologies

We refer to D. B. West [6] for the following definitions.

Definition 1. A graph G is a triple consisting of a vertex set $V(G)$, an edge set $E(G)$ and a relation that associates with each edge two vertices (not necessarily distinct) called its endpoints.

Definition 2. Multiple edges are the edges in which the pair of endpoints are the same.

Definition 3. A loop is an edge having whose endpoints are equal.

Definition 4. A simple graph is a graph having no loops or multiple edges.

Definition 5. Adjacent vertices are the pair of vertices having a common edge.

Definition 6. A finite graph is a graph having a finite vertex set and a finite edge set.

Definition 7. Let G be a simple graph with vertex set $V(G) = \{v_1, v_2, \dots, v_n\}$ and edge set $E(G) = \{e_1, e_2, \dots, e_m\}$. The adjacency matrix of G , denoted as $A(G)$, is the $n \times n$ matrix in which entry $a_{i,j}$ is 1 if v_i is adjacent to v_j in G and otherwise is 0.

The incidence matrix $M(G)$ is the $n \times m$ matrix in which each entry $m_{i,j}$ is 1 if the edge e_j has an endpoint v_i and otherwise 0. If vertex x is an endpoint of an edge e , then x and e are said to be incident.

Remark 0.1. An adjacency matrix is determined by a vertex ordering. Every adjacency matrix is symmetric. An adjacency matrix of a simple graph G has entries 0 or 1, with 0s on the diagonal.

Definition 8. The degree of a vertex v in a graph G , denoted as $d_G(v)$ or $d(v)$, is the number of edges incident to v , except that each loop at v counts twice.

Definition 9. The maximum degree $\Delta(G)$ of a graph G is the maximum degree of all the vertices of G .

The minimum degree $\delta(G)$ of a graph G is the minimum degree of all the vertices of G .

Definition 10. A vertex having degree one is called an end vertex or pendant vertex.

Definition 11. A vertex whose degree is zero is called an isolated vertex.

Definition 12. The order of a graph G , written $n(G)$, is the number of vertices in G . The size of a graph G , written $e(G)$, is the number of edges in G .

Remark 0.2. Note that a graph G of order n can at most have size $\frac{n(n-1)}{2}$.

Definition 13. A subgraph of a graph G is a graph H such that the $V(H)$ is the subset of $V(G)$ and $E(H)$ is the subset of $E(G)$ and the edges in H are same as in G . If H is a subgraph of G , we write as $H \subseteq G$ and we say that " G contains H "

Definition 14. A Graph G is said to be regular if each vertex v of G has same number of edges incident to it. A graph G is k -regular if the degree of each vertex in G is k .

Definition 15. A path is a simple graph whose vertices can be ordered so that two vertices are adjacent if and only if they are consecutive in the ordered list. A path of order n is denoted as P_n .

Definition 16. A cycle is a graph having equal number of vertices and edges whose vertices can be placed around a circle such that two vertices are adjacent if and only if they appear consecutively along the circle. A cycle of order n is denoted as C_n

Definition 17. A graph G is connected if each pair of vertices in G belongs to a path; otherwise, G is disconnected.

Definition 18. A complete graph is a simple graph in which each vertex is adjacent to all the remaining vertices. A complete graph of order n is denoted as K_n

Definition 19. A graph G is bipartite if the vertex set is the union of two disjoint (possibly empty) independent sets called partite sets of G .

Definition 20. A complete bipartite graph is a bipartite graph such that two vertices are adjacent if and only if they belong to different partite sets. When the sets have sizes r and s , the complete bipartite graph is denoted as $K_{r,s}$.

Definition 21. A star $K_{1,n-1}$ is a complete bipartite graph.

Definition 22. The complement \overline{H} of a simple graph H is the simple graph with vertex set $V(G)$ defined by $xy \in E(\overline{H})$ if and only if $xy \notin E(H)$.

Definition 23. A graph with no cycle is acyclic. A tree is a connected acyclic graph.

Definition 24. A directed graph or digraph G is a triple consisting of a vertex set $V(G)$, an edge set $E(G)$ and a function assigning each edge an ordered pair of vertices. The first vertex of the ordered pair is the tail of the edge and the second is the head; together, they are the endpoints. We say that an edge is an edge from its tail to its head.

Definition 25. Let v be a vertex in a digraph. The outdegree $d^+(v)$ is the number of edges with tail v and the indegree $d^-(v)$ is the number of edges with head v .

REPORT ON GRAPH THEORY WORKSHOP

Department of Mathematics organized workshop on graph theory on 4th October 2018. Workshop was organized to enhance the knowledge of students in graph theory and to inculcate the practical exposure, recent development and application. To encourage the problem solving technique using graph theory and creative thinking to find solutions for various problems that we face in our day to day life.

Graph theory is a vast topic in Mathematics. Graph theory started from nature from a great mathematician Euler. The common applications are postal deliveries, train tracks, chemical bonding, bomb blasting, scattered rays etc.

The workshop was inaugurated by Vice-Principal Prof. Asha N, HOD of Mathematics Prof. Roopa R A, resource persons are Dr. Joseph Varghese, Head Of the Department of Mathematics, Christ College and Dr. Mayamma Professor, Department of Mathematics, Christ College.

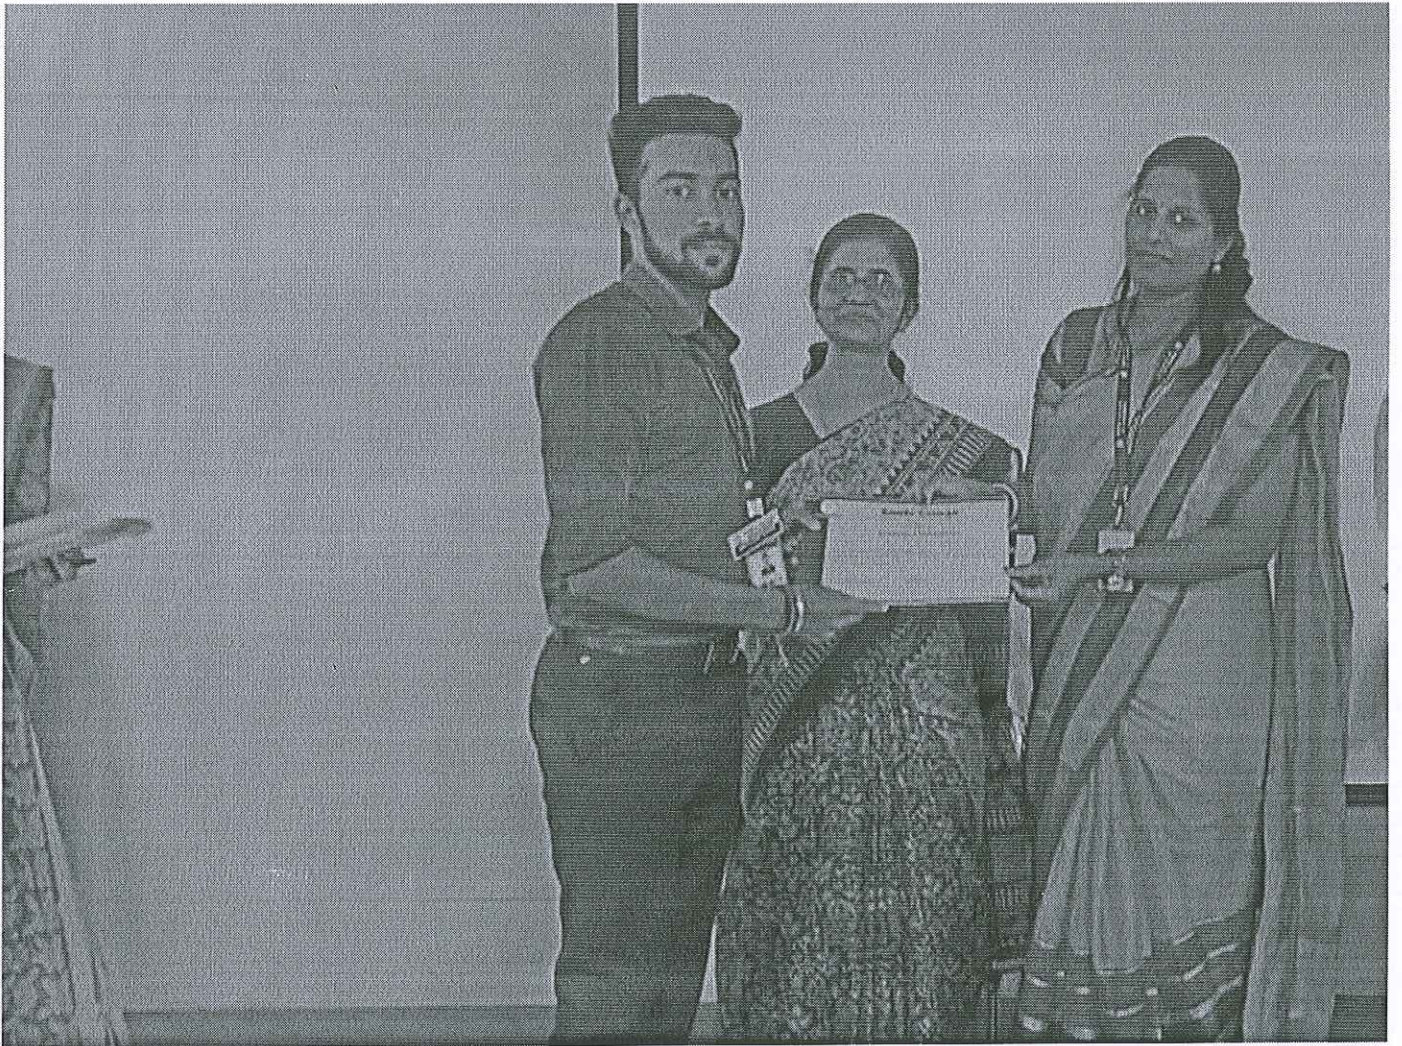

The workshop was attended by all B.Sc. students. The session was very interesting and the students derived a good knowledge about graph theory and its application. The session was ended by valedictory function in presence of Prof. Asha .N, Vice Principal and the certificates were distributed to all the students.

Sir,

Subject: Proposal for Core JAVA Training with Website Design.

As discussed I am forwarding proposal for Core JAVA Training program that needs to be delivered by us mPowerglobal Bangalore. The following points as listed below will be conducted by us

Key Points:

Training Students on Technology (Core Java, Advance Java with HTML/MYSQL/CSS/JavaScript/XML and with Website Design.

The Sessions will be delivered at your campus.

2 Candidates will shortlisted from assessment test, who will give a free internship program @ Our company's campus in Bangalore.

The total duration for training sessions would be 40 hours.

The trainers will be sent by mPower global.

There would be a 1 day flash training on Liferay.

The Sr. trainer and the management representative from mPower will visit the college take the report of all the proceedings.

mPower and Sindhi college will provide certificates jointly to the students who complete their training and project with us.

Advantages for Students:

The Entire Program will be conducted at Sindhi College premises.

We would bring in our corporate experience, which will make the students work more practically on the subject. And this will enhance the skills of the students to do the training with much more understanding.

The pricing of the program is very reasonable. We at mPower believe that education services must be less profitable with maximum inputs to be given to students.

Each candidate will be given a certificate on our company's letterhead jointly signed by the principal of Sindhi college and authority person of mPower. This will give the candidate a confidence boost, as he would be doing the project in a company not in an institute.

We would try making the fundamentals of the subject strong through our Training. As we do have assessments given to these candidates after completion of each module of Training, it will gauge the performance of the individual. Depending on these score we can customized further course of the program.

We would want students to visit our company's campus and do some assignments in their free time. This will give them a feel of on floor culture and exposure before they really start working In an IT firm.

These candidates will learn Introduction to Liferay Technology. And these will few fresher's who will be passing out with Liferay reflecting in their Resume. This will increase the weight age of the resume, so this will highly increase the possibility of getting placed.

Shortlisted 2 candidates of the internship have brighter chances to be acquired by us. As these candidates will be on priority list for openings as they come in our company.

Financials Involved:

Total Fees for the Core JAVA Training with Website Design

800/- Rs. per Student
